

Are you concerned about a patient?

You can contact the Critical Care Outreach team on

Call for Concern® (C4C)
A Patient Safety Service

Royal Berkshire
NHS Foundation Trust

Contact the Critical Care Outreach team directly if you feel that there has been:

- A noticeable change in the patient and the health care team is not recognising your concern.

- There is breakdown in how care is being given and/or confusion over what needs to be done for the patient.

Discuss any concerns that you have with the ward nurse or doctor before using C4C, but making a C4C call should not negatively affect the patients care in any way.

Contact the Critical Care Outreach team directly if you feel that there has been:

- A noticeable change in the patient and the health care team is not recognising your concern.

- There is breakdown in how care is being given and/or confusion over what needs to be done for the patient.

Discuss any concerns that you have with the ward nurse or doctor before using C4C, but making a C4C call should not negatively affect the patients care in any way.

Are you concerned about a patient?

You can contact the Critical Care Outreach team on

Call for Concern® (C4C)
A Patient Safety Service

Royal Berkshire
NHS Foundation Trust

Contact the Critical Care Outreach team directly if you feel that there has been:

- A noticeable change in the patient and the health care team is not recognising your concern.

- There is breakdown in how care is being given and/or confusion over what needs to be done for the patient.

Discuss any concerns that you have with the ward nurse or doctor before using C4C, but making a C4C call should not negatively affect the patients care in any way.

Are you concerned about a patient?

You can contact the Critical Care Outreach team on

Call for Concern® (C4C)
A Patient Safety Service

Royal Berkshire
NHS Foundation Trust

Are you concerned about a patient?

You can contact the Critical Care Outreach team on

Call for Concern® (C4C)
A Patient Safety Service

Royal Berkshire
NHS Foundation Trust

Contact the Critical Care Outreach team directly if you feel that there has been:

- A noticeable change in the patient and the health care team is not recognising your concern.

- There is breakdown in how care is being given and/or confusion over what needs to be done for the patient.

Discuss any concerns that you have with the ward nurse or doctor before using C4C, but making a C4C call should not negatively affect the patients care in any way.